CANNES: VMI Worldwide to screen BHE's Pernicious

9 May, 2014 | By Jeremy Kay

US-Thai producer Benetone Hillin Entertainment 's Pernicious will receive its premiere market screening in Cannes on May 15 through sales agent VMI Worldwide.

James Cullen Bressack directed the story of Pernicious centres on three American beauties whose dream summer adventure in Thailand turns into a nightmare when they unleash the spirit of a murdered child.

Ciara Hanna, Jackie Moore and Emily O'Brien star.

"We are crazy busy and would not want it any other way," said Santa Monica-based BHE president of production Daemon Hillin.

"My partners, Rachvin and Kulthep Narula, who also operate Benetone Films in Thailand, and I are dedicated to making Benetone Hillin Entertainment a one-stop-shop for everything production related in the United States and Asia."

BHE's next production will be The Runaway. Nick DeRuve will make his directorial debut on the story from his screenplay about a fugitive whose time is up.

DeRuve, Hillin and Diondra Meravi are among the producers and the executive producer roster includes Richard Hensch, Rachvin Narula and Kulthep Narula.
